Got it! I corrected the file Nikki. HERO links, the one typo, and I noticed a font issue that I corrected in a footnote. You should be good to go.

Sorry about that! The one dated March with no initials added.

Hi Dahnish!

I realized that your correction was made to the file with Paul's addition. I hate to add work, but can you correct the new file (attached)?

I would like to try to send it back to IOAA without creating version control problems.

Thank you!

Nikki

Hi Nikki – See attached version of the response. It has HERO links now (for the public) and Vicki caught one more typo that I flagged. This is for later, but once the response is signed, let me know and I can make the HERO project public.

Hi Emma,

Paul Schlosser has raised some concerns regarding the chloroprene response (see thread and attachment).

Bob Tallent scheduled a 12:30 PM meeting to discuss his concerns, and we'd like to follow your recommendations on how to proceed.

If you have a chance to scan this ahead of the meeting, I will relay your position to the group (and forward you the invite if interested).

Thanks!

Nikki

Good morning All,

This is not a draft response we are discussing now. It is a final response that has been reviewed and approved by OMB.

If it does need modification then we need to discuss it. However, the response should address only what Denka has presented.

I will schedule a Scoping Team meeting at our earliest to review this issue.

Thank you

Bob

Hi Nikki,

OMB has approved the final response for RFC 21005 – Chloroprene. Attached are the original RFC, supporting documentation, and the approved response from OMB. Please finalize from the OMB approved response and have it signed by your PDAA, Wayne Cascio. Once signed please send to Denka Performance Elastomer, LLC with a copy to me and my supervisor Katherine Chalfant.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks for all you do for Quality!

Bob
